

HOP MUSIC PROUDLY PRESENTS

R A Q U E L A SUMMERTIME

House of Pride Music is proud to present the fresh new EP dance single, SUMMERTIME! Starring Billboard recording Diva, Raquela (whose past hits were, "Falling", "This Fire of Yours", "Nothin' More To give" and the 2012 cover hit, "Tell It To My Heart"). Catch her as she performs a softer, more seductive side, forecasting your next season of love, 'SUMMERTIME'! Summer love is a memory that outlives time itself. Well, Hop Music has 21 unforgettable mixes that are sure to symbolize your next sizzling season... mixes you can sweat to on the dance floor by world famous sensations like, Paul Goodyear, Phil B, LA Rush, Leo Frappier, Jeff Morena, Wayne Numan, DJ X and the effervescent, Corey D! House of Pride Music (or affectionately known as Hop Music) is a San Francisco based label dedicated to huge thumping bass beats that are compelled by diva driven vocals on anthem possessed dance floors.

RAQUELA is an American Billboard recording artist. She was also an award winning singer/actress on Broadway. Her powerhouse vocals got her to open for Diva's like, Deborah Cox, Lady Gaga, Kristine W, Belinda Carlisle and many more. Raquela's cover release of Taylor Daynes, TELL IT TO MY HEART ruled the "Top 40" charts on DJ Times for 28 weeks straight! RAQUELA worked with DJ/Producer legends like, Chris 'The Greek', Raphie Rosario and Tony Moran, but her finest collaboration was with one of the Godfather's of House music, MICKEY Mixin' OLIVER. Together, "NOTHIN' MORE TO GIVE" topped Billboard's "Hot Dance Club" charts for several weeks! Her tracks were spun regularly in New York clubs like Cielo and Sullivan, as well as hyped clandestine parties like, Verboten and Trilogy. Since 2000, her discography was heard all over the country on stations like KTU, Party 105.3, KNGY, Pulse Radio, KSFM and Sirius XM's - BPM. Her music is in regular rotation in global venues like, Nikki Beach, Pacha and Nocturnal. Since her first EP release in 2004 on SuperGroove Records, Raquela has also been released on other labels like, Sony Music, Hot Mix 5, CAPP Records and ISV Entertainment. (raquela.com)

In 2014, Michael Cerchiai (aka. M.J.C.) started his own House of Pride Music imprint (HOP Music). No stranger to the independent Dance music industry, the founding of HOP Music was a more personal venture. The idea behind HOP Music is for Michael to have a creative outlet for releasing funky club dance music that is not limited in tempo. Not just instituted for M.J.C.'s own creations, HOP Music is a vehicle for upcoming and well-known artists who come across his path and catches his ear. M.J.C. began to be recognized by the dance industry since his 2011 release of "Space Tranny" (#6 dance Indiemusic charts.com). After releasing his "Gypsy of Love" with recording artist, Gypsy Love in 2012 (#11 Kings of Spin & Top 30 Czech Dance), the demand was ripe to take his career in to the next step in order to reach beyond the club scene. Other original releases, "Call Me Eve" (#9 reverbNation SF Dance and #1 Dj Papi Top 25) and co-wrote Sheena Rose's, "Make Me Over" (#1 on King of Spins). M.J.C. aka. Tweeka Turner's remixes, Gypsy Love's, "Beautiful Thing" (#5 Mass Pool), Amoray's, "Don't Say It" (#30 Billboard Club Charts). Unreleased Remix Projects: "Move On" - Mary Wilson (of the Supremes).
